

BIG STRIKE IN OLD MINE

FORTY POUND SAMPLE GLITTERS WITH FREE GOLD—OLD MINE NEAR VIRGINIA CITY—SELBY COMPANY GRABS IT QUICKLY.

RENO, Sept. 1.—One of the richest gold strikes made in this portion of the state for many months, was uncovered in an old mining property about a mile and a half from the famous Comstock about ten days ago, but was only made public yesterday. Some immensely rich ore from the discovery was brought in and is now on exhibition. The sample weighs about forty pounds and glitters with free gold. It was taken from an old mine owned by two pioneer miners who have been working the property for years and have always made it comfortable living out of it, although they never uncovered ore like that recently discovered.

Hearing of the rich discovery a few days ago, Emerson Gee, a mining expert; H. T. Benson, a well known mining man; George Milner and W. K. Thomas, went to Carson where they secured an automobile and went to the scene of the discovery. They secured an option on five claims and a fraction for the Selby Consolidated Mining and Milling company, and bonded all the surrounding property. The ledge is 300 feet wide and can be traced for hundreds of feet. It assays all the way from $50 to $50,000 per ton and is probably the greatest discovery made in that portion of Nevada in recent years. The discovery was kept quiet until the adjoining claims had been secured by the Selby company, and was only made known yesterday by Mr. Thomas.

Emerson Gee has been made consulting engineer for the company and A. Y. Werner, an old Comstock miner will have charge of the development of the mine. Work on the property will be started immediately.

Mr. Gee and associates were in the city today and confirmed the above dispatch.

CHURCH WORKER RAN STILL

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Alvina Kincaid, whose wealth is estimated to be $75,000, a church worker and a leader of the Ladies Aid society of her church, has been arrested at Buck, a small town in this state, for alleged violation of the internal revenue laws. According to the federal authorities, Mrs. Kincaid has been one of the most extensive moonshiners in this section. She worked her still in a cave over which her residence was built.

STOLE THEIR CLOTHES

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Going to a quiet pool of water and taking a plunge, four New York clubmen came to grief near Lake Hopaconcong, in New Jersey yesterday. When they emerged from the water their clothes were missing and the nearest barrel factory about five miles away, the four satyrs were kept prisoners until another automobile party brought relief. Two daughters of a farmer are accused of the prank.

Dick Bright and Dr. Good departed for Goldfield this morning to take in the fight.

Dr. Goldberg fixes glasses right. Room 36, Park Hotel.

Albert Norcross has purchased the Clark property on east telegraph street.

Bob Logan is on a business trip to the bay.

BRYAN GETS WELCOME IN NEW ENGLAND

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 1.—The visit of William J. Bryan to Connecticut must have strongly reminded him of the strenuous days of a presidential campaign, for he made four addresses, each of a considerable length and was the center of hand shaking bees, whenever his admirers could reach him. This was crowded between the hours of noon, when he reached the city and the hour of retirement tonight as the guest of former Senator Archibald McNeill of Bridgeport. Everywhere he was heartily received although there was no absence of street demonstrations both here and in Bridgeport. His auditors, however, at times were wildly enthusiastic and especially at the noon luncheon hour.

SALE IN JUMBO DISTRICT

A notable sale was made yesterday in the Jumbo district when George Smith, well known throughout the state as a mining man sold the Fink and Mahoney claims.

The price was $5,000 and the sale is regarded by experts here as evidence of the growing importance of the district.

The Jumbo mining district is but 15 miles from this city and many Carson City men are interested there and confident that the county between Washoe district and Silver City district is destined to play an important part in the mining history of Nevada. It is bound to be, they state, a great wealth producer, when its fame becomes extended enough to attract the capital that is necessary to develop the district.

TRANSPORT SHERIDAN FAST ON THE SHORE

HONOLULU, Sept. 1.—The United States Army transport Sheridan is ashore on Barber's point, the south western extremity of the island of Oahu, on which Honolulu is located.

News of the grounding of the Sheridan was received from the wireless telegraph station at Barber's point this morning, but no details of the accident have yet been learned. It is understood, however, that the steamer is on a coral reef.

Arrangements are being made to send assistance immediately to the stranded vessel.

THE RACE MEETING ASSURED

Posters are hanging on the bill boards and elsewhere calling attention to the fact that a racing meeting will be held in Carson City during the last week in September.

No other race meeting will be held in the state this year, and a number of horsemen are getting ready to come here where good purses and square sport will furnish them forth for the winter.

ADVERTISED LETTERS

The following letters remain unclaimed for at the Carson City post office:

Ladies' List—Mrs. Annie Meadows, Gent's List—Howard J. Friedlander and G. Vanosji.

T. R. MOFFET, Jr., P. M.

TOSIN ACHIEVES A SUCCESS

The concert last night was a huge success. Dick Tobin and Miss Hickey pleased everyone with their respective numbers and Carson City admirers of Mr. Tobin are ready to hail him as a coming Campanari.

Reno and Virginia City are to play baseball in Reno Sunday for the state championship, so they claim. They will have to count Carson City in on it to make it real.

Dick Tobin will repeat his concert at Tonopah Thursday evening.

CRISP AND CURT

Ed. Rosewater, one of the most famous editors of the west died of heart disease in Omaha yesterday. He was editor of the Omaha Bee and was to have been U. S. Senator at the next legislative session. Personal acquaintance with him was one to be desired and loving remembrance will survive him.

Nat Goodwin passed through Reno yesterday to the fight at Goldfield—that is to say he went on business and will be there the same day as that on which the fight is held.

The labor unions of Reno have called attention to the eight hour law in connection with street work in that city by the Barber Asphalt company. The law will be complied with in future. The men were here working nine hours on public work.

John Williams, of Searchlight and Good Springs, Lincoln county, is in the city, enroute home from the copper mines at Reno.

The Mission Township engineers have struck a flow of water in the new artesian well at Minden, 320 feet below the surface. The well will be continued to the 200 foot level.

FOR SILVER MEN

The republican press is laboring hard to make it appear that the Democratic convention at Reno completely ignored the Silver men and showed them no consideration. Nothing could be more ridiculously false. So far from being ignored the silver men were invited into the fullest fellowship, were received in joint convention and given vote for one with their democratic associates.

In joint convention party lines were scarcely drawn at all. The silver men never asked for a division of the offices, but they had the fullest opportunity to nominate and vote for whomsoever they pleased. The Republican statement that only one silver man was nominated is wholly untrue. Every man on the ticket is a silver man in the broader sense of the term and the of the State candidates and two of the district judicial nominees were distinctly members of the silver party.

The truth is that every member of the joint convention had the opportunity of voting and acting just as he felt. If he failed to do so, it was his own fault.

This fact, however, was phrased in a way to mislead. The silver party showed up most woefully weak. While every county in the state, excepting White Pine, was nominally represented, it was mainly a proxy representation and of the thirty or forty delegates actually present, more than half were democrats at heart. They all united on a platform, which, while being Democratic from beginning to end, at the same time expresses in substance everything for which the silver party of Nevada stands. Hence there was nothing strange in the harmony which prevailed.

It is to be hoped that there is no silver party man in the state simple minded enough to be deceived by the crocodile sympathy of the republican press and party. That party would rejoice exceedingly to have the silver party disband and cast their lot with those who struck down silver and brought Nevada to the very verge of ruin. There may be a few who win do so, but they will not be numerous enough to affect the result of an approaching election, and they have not enough political principle to make them valuable to any party beyond its capacity as voting machines.

As for the action of Messrs. Barber and Davis in leaving the silver party the Appeal will simply say that those gentlemen acted for themselves alone and made no attempt to impede and break up the silver party. They spoke in the highest terms of the party, its mission and its present membership, but under the conditions now existing they could see no advantage in maintaining a distinctive party in this state, when the Nevada democracy stands for all that the silver party asks for.

The Appeal does not believe that the silver men of this state will seek for any sympathy or advice in the camp of their enemies to whom may be justly attributed every evil of which the people of this state have been complaining for the last fifteen years.

OFF TO THE CIRCUS

Nearly three hundred persons left this city this morning to attend the circus at Reno this afternoon and tonight. The local looked like a real sure enough excursion train and coaches were added to the regular equipment to accommodate the crowd that appeared.

No grown up person went to see the circus, the parents, sisters, cousins and aunts, not to say brothers, uncles and others went on business and to take the children.

The circus is an American institution and like baseball, always attracts a crowd whenever it appears. The power of red lemonade and an eye curve are about equal, and sometimes sway multitudes.

CALF WEARS MONOGRAM OF ALICE AND NICK

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 1.—Born on the day Alice Roosevelt wedded Nicholas Longworth, a heifer calf on the farm of the Masonic Home in Wallingford, named after the bride of the day, bears on its side the clear outline of the letters A and N woven together within a heart.

The detail of the design is clear as though a work of art, the markings standing out in dark color on a background of pale white.

Little attention was paid to the strange markings on the little animal until the Connecticut Dairymen's association met its fall day on the farm.

Some time since the calf was recognized as the monogram of the president's children. "Alice" is a pure bred Holstein and the monogram is the only one of its kind. Attention has been made to purchase the calf for the managers of the home, where it will stay.

Charles Fletcher, owner of the farm, says the calf was born on Sept. 1st.

Charles G. Clark, manager of the big business at Ramsey came in yesterday from Reno.

ONE MORE CONVENTION

A number of republicans left this morning, enroute to Tonopah to the convention of the republican party at that place Tuesday. Fortunately the prizefight will be held Monday so the republicans will have time to go to the convention after they get there.

The convention should have been held in Carson City this year but such is the frantic effort of the state central committee to get new republican votes, Carson City was passed up, and 200 miles was added to the trip for the delegates. The railroad offered with a one-half fare rate, so that will help some. It is safe to say that more will attend the fight than the convention.

CHURCH SERVICES

Presbyterian—Services at 11 a. m. Sunday school at noon. Christian Endeavor at 4:30 p. m. Morning service at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. "This Good Land You Possess."

Everyone is expected to attend, and such an act will give that personal service wherein the Master transforms duty into highest privilege—this is yours to give even though He appoint you to wait or work other where than in His house. Strangers are cordially invited to gather with us.

Methodist Episcopal Church—Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for Morning sermon, "Right Thinking." Subject for Evening sermon, "The search for Wisdom."

Sunday school at noon.

Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Subject, "Christian Testimony and Conversion."

Everyone is cordially invited to these services. Strangers are made especially welcome.

DON O. COLGROVE, Pastor.

WANT TO MARRY SAILORS WHO ARE IN EXILE

SEVASTOPOL, Sept. 1.—Admiral Skrydloff, commander of the Black sea fleet, has received a number of applications from women who desire to marry soldiers condemned to be exiled to Siberia for mutiny, and accompany them to their place of exile. Several of such requests have been granted.

STRIKE BREAKERS FOR FRISCO

A train load of strike breakers, enroute to San Francisco to take the places of the striking carmen, passed through Reno this morning. Manager Cathoon at San Francisco says he will not talk to any of the men that quit until they go back to work, and the men will not go back to work until they are promised decent treatment and decent pay.

The Nevada Commonwealth mine shipped 765 tons of ore to Salt Lake City yesterday.

The townsite company at Ely says it will build a $90,000 hotel. The structure will be of steel.

John Craze of the Virginia Enterprise has been mentioned as a republican nominee for State Printer.

Dick Tobin and Miss Hickey departed for Virginia City this morning.

Miss Annie Martin is spending a few days at Hobart Mills, visiting with relatives.

A large crowd will leave for Reno tonight to attend the circus, many of them remaining in the riverside town until after labor day.

Miss Fernie Maird has gone to Reno where she will complete her studies at the Atkinson Business Institute.

BILL OF SALE FOR A WIFE

SPARKS MAN GIVES ONE, TAKES HIS CHILDREN AND LEAVES THE COUNTRY—MAN WHO HOLDS THE BILL DONT WANT EITHER BILL OR WIFE

TO THE JOURNAL, Reno, Nevada.

Please Publish
Sparks, Nev., Aug. 31, 1906
BILL OF SALE

To Fred Schneider: For and in consideration of your many acts, I this day deliver unto you one wife, known as Mrs. Mary J. Wiley, to take and dispose of as you wish.
Witness at W. WILEY, (Husband) in Night Ward, Nevada, Southern Pacific

C. W. Wiley, played master of the Southern Pacific company at Sparks, considers himself a wronged husband and to make this matter public wanted to advertise that he had disposed of her. Having considered these arrangements Wiley departed for Ogden with his two children to seek employment with the railroad there and attempt to forget his marital affairs.

It is a well known fact of this in that Fred Schneider of the Ogden Hotel is incensed over the injustice done him, and he avers Wiley is in sane to make such allegations and advertise a wife for sale.

With his departure Wiley sent Schneider a statement which is construed as follows:

"Fred Schneider—Sir: Thanking you for past courtesies and hoping for a continuance of the same, I beg you to accept a lock of my wife's hair as a final token of my regard."
"C. W. WILEY."

BRIDEGROOM BALKED WHEN BRIDE DOPED THE MILK

ASBURY Park, N. J., Sept. 1.—"The devil has certainly got hold of him," said Mrs. Elizabeth Bryan as she stood in a trepe de came wedding gown waiting with the assembled guests for Daniel De B. Keim, whom everybody believed, she was to marry in the Beulah home, Ocean Grove, at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Bryan is 7 years of age. The intended bridegroom mis 75 years old. When the hour for the ceremony arrived Mrs. Bryan got a note which read: "Can't get away to marry you to day."

It was then she gave vent to the expression that the devil had got hold of De B. Keim. Though somewhat bewildered by the turn affairs had taken, Mrs. Bryan was apparently not disconcerted and she asked the guests to sit down to the wedding luncheon.

"Let the Lord have his way," she exclaimed with more resignation, and then she said she would marry De B. Keim when the devil let go of him.

Mrs. Bryan is a pious woman of Ocean Grove, having presided over the Beulah home, which is devoted to prayer all the time. De B. Keim is a regular attendant at prayer meeting and was in the auditorium last night. He said the trouble was due to Mrs. Bryan putting wine in the milk she gave him to drink. Mrs. Bryan admits she put the wine in the milk she gave him to drink. Mrs. Keim from grace, because she had vanilla in the house. De B. Keim is a prohibitionist and says he does not propose to take any chances in the future.

There will be no issue of the Daily Appeal Monday, Sept. 3d, Labor Day, in order that The Appeal men may take part in the celebration of that day as they see fit.
